

AKPIA@MIT

SPRING 2023 EVENTS

SYMPOSIUM, MARCH 4 (SATURDAY)
10:00 AM TO 5:00 PM IN Room 56-114

Building Like a State: Architecture and Nomad-State Relations in Historical Perspective

See <http://akpia.mit.edu/symposium-building-like-a-state>. In person, not available remotely. REGISTER

THE FOLLOWING LECTURES ARE AT 6 PM AND UNLESS NOTED, IN Room-3-133

MARCH 20

Something Else is Possible

VIVIEN SANSOUR, Founder and Director of the Palestine Heirloom Seed Library

In person, not available remotely. REGISTER

APRIL 10

Ottoman Tour d'Europe: Architecture, Urbanism, and Late Ottoman Travelogues

SEMRA HORUZ, AKPIA@MIT Post-Doctoral Fellow
In person, not available remotely. REGISTER

APRIL 24 AT 12:30 PM

Against the Regime of Emptiness

SAMIA HENNI, Cornell University

Via zoom only. REGISTER

MAY 4 (THURSDAY) IN Room 7-429 (Long Lounge). This lecture is also part of the Department of Architecture Lecture Series

Wetland: A Future Vernacular

WAEALAL-AWAR, Nominee Principal of WaiWai Design.

Curator of UAE National Pavilion in the Venice Architecture Biennale 2021, winner of Golden Lion with Kenichi Teramoto.

Will be aired simultaneously on YouTube. REGISTER

MAY 15

The Sultan's Architect Called Home: Raimondo D'Aronco Between Turkey and Italy

SHARON SMITH, AKPIA@MIT Post-Doctoral Fellow

In person, not available remotely. REGISTER

Images of folios from Qur'an Manuscripts in The Metropolitan Museum of Art. All four examples date from 9th or 10th centuries.

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC BUT REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. FOR PARTICIPANTS BIOS AND LECTURE ABSTRACTS PLEASE SEE AKPIA.MIT.EDU/SPRING-2023-BIOS-ABSTRACTS AND VISIT US AT AKPIA.MIT.EDU FOR UPDATES AND INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROGRAM. E-MAIL: AKPIARCH@MIT.EDU. PRESENTED BY THE AGA KHAN PROGRAM FOR ISLAMIC ARCHITECTURE AT THE MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY.