

MIT AKPIA

SPRING 2010

“AN EVENING WITH...”

LECTURE SERIES

FEBRUARY 23 (Tuesday lecture at 5:30 pm in room 3-133)

“Harar, a Muslim City in Ethiopia”

PHILIPPE REVAULT

Architect & Urbanist, Fulbright Visiting Professor, Wentworth Institute of Technology

MARCH 8

“Revisiting the Trope of ‘Unity and Variety’ in Islamic Art”

GÜLRU NECİPOĞLU

Aga Khan Professor of Islamic Art, Harvard University

APRIL 5

“The Architecture of Migration: Translation and Creative Synthesis in the Mosques of Tamil, Hadhrami and Chinese Peranakan Communities in the Emporia of Nusantara”

IMRAN BIN TAJUDEEN

AKPIA@MIT Post-Doctoral Fellow

APRIL 12

“Urbanization, Poverty and Land-Use in the Megacities of South Asia”

ELIZABETH DEAN HERMANN

Professor of Urban Studies & Landscape Architecture, Design for Development, and the History of Islamic Architecture & Urbanism, Rhode Island School of Design

APRIL 26

“Interrupting the Archive: Indigenous Interventions to Colonial Categories of Indian Heritage”

MRINALINI RAJAGOPALAN

AKPIA@MIT Post-Doctoral Fellow

MAY 3

“Breaching the Walled Cities of Bilâd al-Shâm”

NICOLAS PROUTEAU

AKPIA@MIT Post-Doctoral Fellow

Lectures are at 5:30 pm and unless indicated, on Mondays in Room 3-133. Lectures are free and open to the public.

Emperor
Philip the Arab (204–249)

SPONSORED BY THE AGA KHAN PROGRAM FOR ISLAMIC ARCHITECTURE AT MIT