ISLAMIC GARDENS & GEOGRAPHIES

DAY:	Wednesday
TIME:	2:00 -5:00
ROOM:	5-216
PROFS:	James Wescoat
UNITS:	3-0-9 G
LEVEL:	G
CREDITS:	12

This seminar focuses on the historical geography of Islamic gardens, from Andalusia to Southeast Asia, with an emphasis on the Indian subcontinent. We critically engage evidence from archaeological, art historical, and cartographic sources, and explore strategies for generating integrative interpretations of historic landscapes. Topics include gardens, cities, cultural landscapes, and political territories, along with their contemporary significance for cultural heritage conservation and design. Limited to 15.
