

ARCE Research Fellowships

Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), U.S. Department of State funded

Through a grant from the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC) this fellowship is open to U.S. citizen pre-doctoral candidates (ABD), postdoctoral scholars, faculty and senior scholars at museums, universities and institutions worldwide for a minimum stay of three months and maximum stay of 12 months. Four to six fellowships funded annually.

National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) funded

Through a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities this fellowship is open to U.S. citizen postdoctoral scholars, faculty and senior scholars at universities, museums and institutions worldwide for a minimum stay of four months and a maximum stay of 10 months. Foreign nationals living in the U.S. for three consecutive years immediately preceding the application deadline are also eligible to apply. One fellowship is funded annually.

Applicants will automatically be considered for both ECA and NEH funding if your Ph.D. is conferred before October 1, 2019.

ARCE Pre-dissertation Travel Grant

Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), U.S. Department of State funded

Through a grant from the Council of American Overseas Research Centers (CAORC) this fellowship is open to U.S. citizen pre-doctoral candidates who have completed coursework but not yet advanced to ABD status. Grantee will conduct exploratory research to identify sources, build professional networks and visit heritage sites, research libraries and archives in Egypt. Minimum one month, maximum two months stay. One grant is awarded in years when qualified candidates apply.

Theodore N. Romanoff Prize

This generous grant provides $2000 for research on the language or historical texts of ancient Egypt - including the Coptic language as the final stage of historic Egyptian languages. At present, the prize is only awarded in conjunction with an ARCE fellowship. This prize is awarded in years when a qualified candidate is identified.

William P. McHugh Memorial Fund

The William P. McHugh Memorial Fund encourages the study of Egyptian geo-archaeology and prehistory by providing a special award of $600 to a pre-doctoral student. Currently, the award is only offered in conjunction with an ARCE Fellowship and therefore, is open to U.S. citizens at universities worldwide.

ARCE Research Associates (unfunded) for 2019-2020

Research Associates

This association with ARCE is open to U.S. citizen pre-doctoral (ABD), postdoctoral, early career and senior scholars worldwide and foreign nationals studying or teaching at American universities in the U.S. with independent funding. Research associates receive the same level of administrative and academic support accorded ARCE-funded fellows but must have their own funding resources. ARCE requires research associates to pay a modest fee to offset the cost of providing administrative services. Interested applicants should complete the ARCE Fellowship Application and indicate Research Associate status on the application. Minimum three months, maximum 12 months stay.
